Adam Ayers is a Licensed Massage Therapist, a 500-Hour Registered Yoga Teacher with the National Yoga Alliance, a Certified Relax and Renew Trainer™, a Certified Personal Trainer through the National Academy of Sports Medicine and a Myofascial Release Practitioner in the John F. Barnes' Approach. He began teaching yoga in 2001 shortly after his introduction to the practice at age 19. Since then Adam has taught throughout the United States in various venues, from well-appointed spas to corporate settings, and teacher trainings. In 2016, Adam founded YoGay Yoga, a creative program expanding the benefits of yoga to the LGBTQ community. His diverse background of study with leading teachers Francois Raoult, Judith Lasater, Ph.D, PT, Donald Moyer, Richard Rosen, and Desiree Rumbaugh yields a unique and embodied approach to teaching yoga. Adam emphasizes a playful exploration of postural alignment as it relates to the practice of breathing, meditation and deep rest. He continues learning with senior yoga teacher Francois Raoult and as a longtime and dedicated student of Judith Lasater, Ph.D, PT.
